(Housing : San Antonio) 6/7/2010

SAN ANTONIO (San Antonio Business Journal) - According the San Antonio Board of Realtors (SABOR), there were 3,706 home sales in the greater San Antonio area during the first three months of 2010 — a 12 percent increase from the sales reported for the same three months in 2009.

The data include both new and existing home sales.

The second quarter of the year is off to a good start as well. For the month of April, SABOR reported 1,772 home sales — a 20 percent increase compared to April 2009.

The federal Homebuyer Tax Credit program was a factor in the sales uptick, notes Marietta Alba, the 2010 chairman of the board for SABOR.
