Farms and Ranches on 99.38 Acres

Jennings Survey, Wimberley, TX

Secluded and Private. One of the highest elevations in Hays County, this property has breathtaking panoramic views of the Hill Country, with beautiful madrones, many cleared pastures, and a grotto in the bottom land. Many structures and features on the high point of the property, including a 3bed/2bath 3,000sf main residence that was remodeled with high-end finishes, and custom in-ground negative edge swimming pool. A 1bed/1 ½ bath 1,500sf detached "mother-in-law" suite with full kitchen and surrounded by many peach and fig trees. A 1bath 500sf studio apartment above the garage. A free standing "Morgan" building currently used as an office, A fenced in vineyard, a 50'x30' barn, a rainwater collection system that feeds into a 30,000 gallon water tank, a propane fueled generator, and a fenced in goat pen. The property is fenced, cross fenced and gated. Because of the high elevation of the property, the internet has a line-of-site signal and is very strong.

Built in 2000
