OLMOS PARK, Olmos Park, TX

Magnificent Olmos Park stone home offers everything and more. From the original glistening wood flooring and plaster walls to the immaculate well-appointed finishes. A pony stone wall sits between this stunning home and Olmos Drive allowing visibility yet division of space. The front entry welcomes you to the home with a saltillo tile patio and historic leaded glass front door nestled in an arched detailing with historic medallion. Entering the foyer, you have views of the dining, den, and spacious yet cozy living area featuring a wood burning fireplace and coved plaster ceilings. Just off the living area you will find a second space with floor to ceiling built-in bookcases and access to the covered patio beyond. The dining area just off the kitchen could host a grand gathering and features three sets of wooden double doors with beveled glass. A true chef's kitchen features deluxe finishes, stainless steel appliances plus a center island with seating. An ingenious and charming breakfast nook with built-in table and seating is tucked away under the window. The kitchen is open to the den with additional built-in bookcases and delightful window seat. The wooden spindled staircase leads you up to the second level where you will find the primary suite and three additional bedrooms. The generous primary suite features a sitting area with wood burning fireplace, sleeping area, two bathrooms and boutique style walk-in closets. The well-appointed secondaries with ensuite bathrooms are all unique. The front bedroom allows access to the front balcony and shares a jack and jill bathroom. A fourth bedroom with private ensuite bathroom overlooks the backyard. The backyard oasis begins at the travertine patio and leads to the exceptional pool and patio beyond. Plenty of green space for pets and play plus mature landscaping allow for privacy. Sensible detached quarters are comprised of a living area, kitchenette, and bedroom. Two car garage plus storage bay and shed provide ample storage on property. Finished basement for the utility room and additional storage. Circular driveway welcomes guests and private gated drive welcomes residents. The historic craftsmanship featured in this impressive home is not to be missed!
