3 Bedroom, 2.00 Bathroom, 2,203 sqft
Residential on 0.32 Acres

none, Austin, TX

Fantastic large, level corner lot in the hills of Westlake. Only second time this property has been for sale since being built. Unbelievable amount of potential here. House is certainly livable with some updates or you could do a large renovation for a custom home, or you could tear it down and start over. The possibilities are endless. Currently has three nice bedrooms, two baths, open living with wall of windows, kitchen with large party area built a few years ago, extra living room and a huge bonus/gameroom area that was originally the carport but was converted years ago. It has a large circle driveway with lots of large trees on the property and a two story shed in back and a large patio area. Property originally had a stellar view of the Austin skyline, possible view if you build up and clear trees. Owner/agent. Being sold as is no repairs will be made.

Built in 1963
