Hill country escape nestled along the Sabinal River with trees that have witnessed history. A front porch large enough to gather but small enough for telling tall tales. The charming log cabin has a spacious kitchen with double convection ovens, allowing more than one cook in the kitchen. Perfect for groups the cabin sleeps 14 and boasts of a welcoming river view and a built in Texas style bar-b-que grill. Behind the home, a sizable 39 acres is perfectly positioned with a barn ready for horses. The property is uniquely situated on both sides of the Sabinal, while Guadalupe bass swim through the clear blue water. Don't forget the binoculars: this property is a birder's delight.
