Young Ranch, Meridian, TX

The Young Ranch consists of 72 acres of multiuse opportunities including recreational hunting and fishing in either the Bosque River or the spring fed stock tank. Live Oak, mature pecan and other hardwoods provides plenty of cover for wildlife such as Whitetail deer and Rio Grande turkey. The ridge where the main house is located offers a commanding view of the rolling countryside as well as the 2 coastal Bermuda pastures of horse hay. The property is bordered by approximately one third mile of accessible Bosque River frontage. This is a wonderfully designed open concept home with an excellent flow from the kitchen through an impressive cedar beamed portal into the living den area.
