Farms and Ranches on 144.15 Acres

Black, Albert, Elgin, TX

Beautiful 140 acres, sandy loam soil, mature trees, open pastures and some pretty thick woods for great diversity. There is a driveway to the back where you will see the pond and a few towering pine trees. This property is fairly level with a lot of usable space and only a very small tip of 100 year flood plain according to the county maps. The old house is considered to be of no value. There was an old well although it is not working now and a power pole. This could be your getaway, your happy place. :)Restrictions: Unknown

Built in 1956
