Westgate Condo Amd, Austin, TX

Whether you need access to the state government offices or just appreciate the proximity of the grand architecture and historical significance of its buildings, there is no location prized more than the Westgate Building adjacent to the Capitol grounds. The picturesque pink granite Texas State Capitol is framed in windows like treasured artwork on the walls of this three bedroom, three bath condominium. It's hard to look out any window without a quick intake of breath or a swelling of pride in just how beautiful the very heart of Austin is. Looking out over the dignified landscape of the Governor's mansion and out to City Center, this desirable space is uncontested in its impressive vistas.

Built in 1965
