Gracieland is a small outdoor recreational/residential paradise close to town! These 17 acres have everything you need for a near-urban but relaxing lifestyle – privacy, easy access, wildlife, a fishing pond, & more. As the owner pulls into the driveway, a beautiful stand of live oaks hides the front of the house, offering privacy and a unique Hill Country setting. Oaks, elms, hackberries, juniper, and mesquite are scattered throughout the property, which is open in some areas & heavily wooded in others. White-tailed deer & wild turkey frequent the property, and exotics like axis, sika, and red deer are seen regularly. Harvest all the wild game you need for food just steps from the house. There is a 4-bed, 2.5-bath, 2,530sf house built in 1992. The home features an open living area and spacious kitchen. An office sits just off the foyer, making working remotely a breeze.
